

TOEFL POLICY

All applicants whose native language is not English must present evidence of proficiency in English by satisfactorily completing the Test of English as a Foreign Language examination (TOEFL).

A total TOEFL score of at least 570 or the equivalent score of 230 on the computer version or 88 on the Internet-based version, with no less than 55 on the paper version or 20 on the computer version or 18 on the Internet-based version in each of the three subtest scores (listening, structure/writing, and reading) that comprise the total score is required.

An official report of these scores must be received by the Registrar's Office prior to the date(s) on which admission decisions are made for the program(s) to which the applicant has applied. To obtain information or to register to take the TOEFL, write directly to:

The Education Testing Service
P.O. Box 6151
Princeton, New Jersey 08541-6151, U.S.A.

You may also wish to visit the TOEFL Web site at <http://www.toefl.org>.